

W. E. B. DUBOISE CHAIRMAN POLICE BOARD 'TIL MARCH

After Eleven Months' Deadlock, Commission Finally Elects, Winner Getting Seven Votes.

VICE SQUAD IS NO MORE, SAYS MAYOR WOODWARD

The Plainclothesmen, With Fourteen Detectives, to Don Uniforms and Compose New Watch.

When Commissioner Baskin walked into the police board meeting last night and took his seat, it was the first time a full meeting of the board has been in session since last April. Then, fruitless efforts to elect a police board chairman ended in an agreement that no chairman would be elected unless a full board was elected. Commissioner Andy King took advantage of the opportunity to elect, and immediately moved the election of a chairman be taken up.

The Woodward faction, realizing that defeat was staring it in the face, attempted to defeat Commissioner King's resolution, but only mustered four votes against it.

Commissioner W. B. Fain on the first and only ballot was named chairman. The vote stood: Fain 7, Commissioner R. T. Pace 4 and Commissioner Arthur Woodward 1.

Commissioner Fain was declared elected, having marshaled a majority of the twelve votes. This ended the longest struggle in the history of the police board to elect a chairman.

For eleven months the board has been without a chairman. Mayor Woodward, by virtue of his office, acting chairman.

Last night's ballot was: For Fain, King, Dickson, Letson, Smith, Vernon, Fain and Baskin for Pace, Woodward, Johnson and Clarke; for Vernon, Gasser and Pace.

It was Commissioner Vernon's vote that gave Commissioner Fain the required majority to elect. Commissioner Baskin's right to vote was not questioned, although Tuesday afternoon a council meeting Councilman J. N. Renfro took the position that Mr. Baskin should be a member of the police board, as he had moved from the first ward.

Chairman Fain will hold office through the March meeting, when the board again reconvenes. Several new faces will be seen on its roster.

The winning ballot last night was: No.

When Mayor James G. Woodward, with a stroke of his pen, amended the financial sheet Tuesday morning and general council and the aldermanic board passed the amended sheet, it was a relief to the city after a long and arduous afternoon, that stroke of Mayor Woodward's pen abolished Police Chief James L. Heaver's widely known vice squad.

What was the substance of the information given to Chief Heaver by the mayor on the morning of the police board last night?

New Watch Created.

The mayor informed the board that the watch called for a new watch to patrol the city of Atlanta at night, the purpose of this watch being to stop the depredations of highwaymen and burglars.

Beginning today and henceforth, the vice squad will be no more. Its ten members, who heretofore have patrolled the streets as plainclothesmen, will, as of today, be reorganized into a new watch, and will wear uniforms.

The chief also called for a reduction in the detective department from thirty to twenty men. The reduction in the detective department will be effected by the elimination of the salary of the uniform patrol policeman.

A special resolution of the police board last night instructed the detective Newport Lanford to select the members of the new watch from the entire police department. In order to place the sixteen men on the new watch, the chief was instructed to select the best men from the entire police department or former vice squad.

The resolution stipulates that the selections are to be subject to the approval of Police Chief Heaver.

Commissioner Andy King's plan of having police call officers stationed at a number of the fire stations in different parts of the city, and to be called continuously, to answer police emergency calls from those sections, will be carried out this morning.

Chief Heaver is to place two call officers at fire stations Nos. 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12.

King's Plan.

All emergency calls from citizens for immediate police protection will, as heretofore, be received by the chief of police, and transmitted from the chief to the call officers on duty at the fire stations. The call officers will select any police officer who is on duty at the fire station, and will select any police officer who is on duty at the fire station, and will select any police officer who is on duty at the fire station.

For information of the public Chief Heaver announces the following territory to be covered by call officers:

From No. 1 to No. 14, the territory in the first and second wards.

From No. 15 to No. 18, the territory in the third and fourth wards.

From No. 19 to No. 22, the territory in the fourth and fifth wards.

From No. 23 to No. 26, the territory in the fifth and sixth wards.

From No. 27 to No. 30, the territory in the sixth and seventh wards.

From No. 31 to No. 34, the territory in the seventh and eighth wards.

From No. 35 to No. 38, the territory in the eighth and ninth wards.

From No. 39 to No. 42, the territory in the ninth and tenth wards.

From No. 43 to No. 46, the territory in the tenth and eleventh wards.

From No. 47 to No. 50, the territory in the eleventh and twelfth wards.

Have a Bundle Ready If You Want a Visit From Pretty Bessie Wynne

Would you like to have Bessie Wynne, the Forsyth star, as a visitor? Then, pin a ribbon on your front door knob early tomorrow morning in indication of a bundle awaiting collection.

You shall, without fail, play host to hostesses between the hours of 10 a. m. and 1 p. m., to the headliner of vaudeville fame.

Miss Wynne, a traveler of wide repute, goes upon a brand-new sort of tour Thursday morning, a personally conducted tour collecting bundles for the poor on "Bundle day." She will be conveyed in a limousine and escorted by a huge truck, on the latter of which she will transport her collection of bundles for charity's sake.

Miss Wynne, who is as charming as she is on, yesterday afternoon, took a reporter for The Constitution how enthusiastic she had grown over the "Bundle day" idea.

Will Give a Bundle Herself.

"There are so many poor folks out of work and in destitute circumstances all over the country," she said, "everywhere I go, I see pitiful evidence of it. I have seen some of the most sorrowful scenes when I arrived in Atlanta and heard of 'Bundle day' I was impressed with it, and wanted right away to do my share of fun."

"I asked Mr. Cardosa about it, and when he explained 'Bundle day,' nothing would suit me but to contribute my own bundle. Mr. Cardosa suggested that I could be of even better advantage, as one of the problems confronting the promoters was the transportation and collecting of bundles. 'I'm just wild about the idea. To think that I can be the least little help to the poor makes me feel very happy. I'll have a jolly time and a very lot of fun.'"

Tour Starts at 10 O'clock.

At 10 o'clock Miss Wynne will embark on her tour, accompanied by friends. It will be decorated in honor of the sixteen men on the new watch, the chief was instructed to select the best men from the entire police department or former vice squad.

SENATE FIGHTS 'TIL NIGHT OVER FIGHTING ALL DAY OVER SHIPPING MEASURE

Republicans, Aided by the Seven Democratic Bolters, Have Resumed Filibuster That Will Probably Force Extra Session.

FAIR, PROJECT ASSURED, RESULT OF AGREEMENT CLOSURE AMENDMENT TO THE SENATE RULES MAY BREAK DEADLOCK

Administration Leaders Declare Session May Last a Week Without Interruption—Republicans and the Bolters Are Surprised at Strength Shown by the Administration Forces.

Washington, February 9.—Normal notice in writing that he would seek a closure amendment to the senate rules to end debate on the administration shipping bill at 2 p. m., February 13, and cause a dual vote to be taken three hours later, was given by Senator Reed late tonight when the senate had been in continuous session for more than thirty-six hours.

The rules committee proposed amendment that if ever for "one day," and if this is construed to mean a "legislative day," there can be no action on the senate adjournment until after the legislative day of Monday.

Senators Gallagher and Smart valued made points of order against Senator Reed's notice, and the republicans generally let it be known that they would fight to the last ditch against an attempt to adopt any form of closure rule.

Gave the Floor to Democrats.

Senator McPherson, who had yielded to Senator Reed on the understanding that he would not lose the floor, resumed his speech. Senator Sherman rose and declared that Senator McPherson had lost the floor. Senator Reed, in the chair, sustained the point of order and gave the floor to the democrats by recognizing Senator Stone. He held fast to his decision under a shower of objections and points of order from the republican side, and refused to grant an appeal from his ruling.

Senator Stone then began an attack on the bill while the republican senators retired to the cloak rooms for a conference.

Senator Fletcher had thrown the senate into an uproar just before midnight when he demanded a vote on the bill and may vote on the pending question, the first of the three propositions into which the senate has divided the measure to recommit the shipping bill to the commerce committee had been divided.

The two are always associated and they always will be, as the text wherever and whenever he writes his name. And thereby hangs this story, as told Tuesday by Mr. Alexander himself, soon after his arrival in Atlanta, accompanied by Mr. Alexander.

For Aid of Human Derelicts League Asks Better Facilities

Plans are under way by the Christian League for enlarging the scope of the work that has been done and is being done to help men who have lost a grip on life. This league was organized by a group of men who believed that there were many for whom there seemed to be little hope in life's struggle. They were transformed into useful citizens by a "friendly" aid of a Christian man. The institution, which is located at 1015 Decatur street, can provide beds at night for 40 men, and the day about 100 can be fed. But, and this is the main thing, the institution is daily made upon it. Many men, wishing to lead better lives and turn over a new leaf, are trying to get help from the league—not alone, but just a chance to get decent and have hope and courage take the place of despair. They are nearly one thousand men who have been taken care of, many of whom have started out in life again and are making good. The motto of the institution has been: "To help a man to help himself."

in Conference All Day
Tuesday.

Active work has been begun by the state in preparation of its fight against the supreme court appeal of Leo Frank's counsel. Solicitor Hugh M. Dorsey and Warren Grice, attorney general, were closeted throughout yesterday afternoon and for a large part of the morning. The conference was held in the state capital in the offices of the attorney general and in the state library, in the latter of which the solicitor and attorney general devoted into volume after volume of constitutional law. This is the first of a series of conferences that will be held by Frank's prosecutors. Much work is yet to be done between now and February 25, at which date the Frank appeal will come before the supreme court for a hearing. Both Solicitor Dorsey and Attorney Grice will go to Washington to present the state's side of the case.

FAIR WEDNESDAY, AND NOT SO COLD, SAYS FORECASTER

Four fine days of weather have returned the general feeling of the weather man and again his forecast has been accepted into the bosom of a worshipful populace. And that's not all! Another day of sunny skies and moderate temperature has been predicted for Wednesday. The forecast for the day is expected to moderate during the day.

Want Ad in Constitution Sends Nearly Hundred Men To Southern Railway Office

WANTED—Several experienced switchmen and trainmen for southern road, with knowledge of local conditions and experience. Address: G-205, Constitution. The above want ad, appearing in The Constitution, has caused W. W. Watts, superintendent of terminals of Southern railway, to have considerable faith in the efficacy of The Constitution as a medium for the employment of men. Mr. Watts had all the force needed already, but for a time it appeared that the need would need additional office assistance to explain to numerous applicants that the little ad was not written by the Southern.

TWO AUTOMOBILES TO BE GIVEN AWAY BY GRAND THEATER

The management of the Grand theater, where high-class motion picture programs are being shown daily, has decided to give two juvenile automobiles, the smallest cars in the world, to the boy and girl who get the most coupons in a contest which begins today and continues to Friday, March 12. The contest is open to all boys and girls in and around Atlanta. The automobiles are now on exhibition in the lobby of the Grand, and are attracting the interest and admiration of the youngsters. The auto is a miniature replica of the big car, including lights, steering gear, wind shield, wheels with rubber tires and extra wheel fastened on the back of the car.

Will Erect Large Rooming House for Bachelors as an Adjunct to New Clubhouse

Many members of the Atlanta Athletic club were disappointed when the new clubhouse at East, the city, signed without rooms where members might sleep. Plans are now on foot to relieve this situation through a private enterprise. The plan is to erect a large brick rooming house for bachelors, on Morgan street, near the club building. The site of the proposed building is a lot 50x200, on the north side of Morgan street, near the corner of Johnson avenue. This site is just at the end of the car line, and is very convenient to the clubhouse.

TAXES $500,000 BEHIND SAME DATE LAST YEAR

Treasury Department Having Trouble Paying Teachers and Pensions.

The 1914 state taxes collected to date are something more than $500,000 behind the amount collected for the corresponding period on the 1913 taxes, and as a consequence the state treasury department is finding itself somewhat embarrassed in the matter of paying the school teachers and of pensions. With prospects of a revival of business and better times, however, it is hoped the payment of taxes will pick up accordingly. The comparative figures of the 1913 and 1914 taxes are as follows: Collections 1913 taxes: December, 1913—$1,724,411.25; January, 1914—$1,724,411.25; February, 1914—$1,724,411.25; March, 1914—$1,724,411.25; This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf of a book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some minor discoloration and small dark spots, possibly due to age or handling. A vertical crease is visible near the right edge, and the binding edge on the right shows dark stitching or thread.

The Vesper clubhouse on Friday night will be the scene of a delightful affair. The Vesper club's first February dance. The honor guest of the evening will be Miss Louise Hill, of Macon, Ga., the guest of Miss Laura Wyatt, of Anselmy Park. Many invitations to some members have been issued by the dance committee and a large crowd is expected to be present.

On Wednesday, February 17, the Vesper club will give a shower dance. Each member and guest will bring something suitable as a decoration for the clubhouse. All the decorations for the evening will go for other decorations in the clubhouse.

The chaperons of the evening will be:

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Walther, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. John Chase, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Park, Mr. and Mrs. M. Thayer, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Erwin, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Black.

Electa Chapter, O. E. S., To Give Dance.

Electa chapter, Order of Eastern Stars, will give an informal dance at 7:30 hall, Auditorium, Tuesday evening, February 9. Members of the Electa chapter, Argentine, Hyperion, Vesper and other clubs are especially invited to attend.

Among the chaperons for the evening will be: Mrs. Ashby, Mrs. Worthy, Mrs. D. E. S. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Compton, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Erwin, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Thayer, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Thayer, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Erwin, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Hirschburg, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. O. Neel.

Admission by invitation only.

To the Misses Foy.

Mrs. Thomas I. Lynch entertained at a o'clock tea yesterday afternoon at a reception a delightful one and a compliment to the Misses Foy, who have been extended many pretty courtesies during their visit here.

The decorations in red and white carried picturesque suggestion of the Valentine season. The tea table centerpiece was of white hydrangeas tied with red tulle, the silver candelsticks had red shades, and the candies were red hearts.

Mr. Lynch was becomingly gowned in pink charmesuse with crystal net tulle. Miss Helen Foy was gowned in green chiffon. Miss Claire Foy wore yellow tulle and charmesuse. Assisting her in entertaining were: Mrs. Samuel H. Galloway, Mrs. Katherine Coleman, Mrs. B. J. Coleman, Miss Lorraine and Mrs. F. J. Bloomfield.

To Miss Hill.

Miss Louise Hill, of Macon, who is visiting Miss Laura Wyatt, was guest of honor at a delightful dancing party given by Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Dunn last night at their home in Anselmy Park. The occasion was quite informal.

Browning Reading.

The Young League meeting yesterday at the Georgian Terrace assembled the usual large audience and there was an unusual treat in the reading of "In a Nation," this the first Browning afternoon this winter.

Mrs. Merrill Hutchison, Miss Carolyn Cobb and Rev. W. W. Memminger presented a delightful interpretation.

To Miss Sciple.

Mr. Marshall Clarke Johnson gave a pretty luncheon yesterday in compliment to Miss Mary Sciple, who is including also Mrs. William H. Seckford, Mrs. J. J. Fitzgerald, Mrs. John Copeland and Mrs. William Shallenberger. The table centerpiece on a lace cloth was a silver basket of pink tulips, the place cards were valley lilies and the entire detail of service was complete and artistic.

Mrs. Johnson was gowned in green crepe meteor with tulle of black tulle.

A Practical Memorial.

At a meeting held Monday by the Ladies' Aid society of the First Methodist church at 1000 Virginia street, a memorial was organized in memory of the late Mrs. Louisa Nixon, who was the identical of the society for many years. The memorial will take the form of an endowed room in the vault home at Tullahoma, Ga., and will be called the Louisa Vaughn Nixon memorial. The scholarship has been given to the young Atlanta girl who will take the full industrial course at the Georgia Institute of Technology. Mrs. Laramore met with the aid society and Mrs. Nixon's daughter, Louisa Nixon, and a work basket full of Vaudeville, containing a pair of scissors from Mrs. Nixon's own hand.

A further memorial to Mrs. Nixon is that her Sunday school class at the First Methodist church will be known hereafter as the Louisa Vaughn Nixon memorial class.

Tea-Dance.

Entertaining at the tea-dance this afternoon at the Driving club will be Judge and Mrs. Benjamin Hill, who will have a party of friends to meet Mrs. William T. Claiborne, of Knoxville, who is visiting Mrs. E. E. Norris.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Adams, Jr., will entertain Mrs. William Royster, of Norfolk, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Simmons will entertain for Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Sciple. The guests will be: Mr. and Mrs. Sciple, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Haverly, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Dargatz, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Remsen and Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Thoburn.

Others who will entertain are Mr. and Mrs. Jean Somerville, Mr. and Mrs. Harry English, Dr. and Mrs. Cyrus Strickler, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hockaday and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Atkinson.

MEETINGS

The O. E. S. "Ladies' Patrol" will have a social evening at the residence of Mrs. W. B. Cummings, Thursday, February 11. All members are urged to be present.

The Atlanta Woman's Missionary association, supporting the Travelers' aid work, will meet this morning at 10 o'clock, at the Central Congregational church, corner Ellis street and Carnegie way. All ladies interested are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Thacton Badly Burned.

Mrs. H. H. Thacton, aged 23, was seriously burned last night when her clothes caught fire from an open grate in her residence, 14 South Jackson street. A number of her friends were present at the time and immediately wrapped her in a blanket, putting out the flames.

She was rushed to the Grady hospital. Mrs. Thacton is in ill health, but has been wired to come to Atlanta immediately.

Another Month Gone
February is here and still you have not started that Savings Account. Perhaps you have promised yourself that some day, when you earn more money, you will start saving. But bear in mind that time is a very elusive quantity, and many well-intending people never find it. The fateful "when" set for your start is the rock upon which the future of thousands of hard-working young men have been wrecked. Better start today by opening an account with this strong National Bank.

Jack White's Seconds Throw
Up Sponge in Eighth Round;
Great Fight Card Is Staged

By Dick Jemison.

Jack White's seconds threw up the sponge in the eighth round of the scheduled round bout with Frank Whitney, the "Fighting Carpenter," of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, at the Blue Hotel last night.

In making this move, the Chicagoan, seconds took the right step, they say, to save Whitney from a further beating at the hands of the Atlanta favorite.

White's left eye was closed, his face was cut in several places and he was bleeding from a constant pumping of the nose by the Cedar Rapids star.

Bowden had a brief conference with Manager Smith, expressed his delight over coming here, his satisfaction over the terms of his contract and his willingness to give the Crackers the best that he has in shop at all times.

Whitney weighed 135 pounds and White 125, according to the weights witnessed by several fight fans Tuesday afternoon. After the fight White stated that the difference in weight was too much for him.

Whitney challenged Whitney for another bout, provided the challenger had 125 pounds, the Atlanta favorite said. He also said that he would make it a forfeit of $100 for appearance.

White's view of the wonderful fight these two boys put up Tuesday night, a two rounder, under the terms of the contract, would be to give the fight a second round, but he said that he would not make it a forfeit of $100 for appearance.

Manager Smith, of the Local Club, Not Pleased With the Tentative Schedule He Has Received.

Manager Smith, who is back on the job again, after a brief illness, is not at all pleased with the schedule that the schedule committee of the Southern league drafted.

The schedule calls for the Crackers to travel over 9,000 miles during the coming season, New Orleans being the only team in the league that has more mileage than the Crackers.

Crackers have to make, for instance, a round trip to Nashville, then to the local magnate, and back to the city.

New York, February 9.—Although the principal business for which the National league club owners gathered here for the annual schedule meeting, which began today, was to ratify and adopt the league's schedule for the coming season, that matter was laid over until tomorrow, when the schedule will be taken up immediately after the meeting.

At the session of the board of directors, President Frawley announced that the following players had been accepted for the 1935 season:

Crackers have to make, for instance, a round trip to Nashville, then to the local magnate, and back to the city.

SENATE FIGHTS ALL NIGHT AFTER FIGHTING ALL DAY

strength commanded by the administration forces when Senator Bland, of Arkansas, moved that the senate adjourn until noon on the motion, Senator Norris, progressive republican, would not stand with the administration majority on the motion. Senator Norris, however, voted against the adjournment. The senate adjourned at 11:30 p. m. after a session of 11 hours, the longest in the history of the senate since the beginning of the fight. The vote was 41 to 46.

The strenuous all-night session adjournment republican had planned to try to displace the bill tomorrow by a motion to take up for consideration the postoffice appropriation measure and such an attempt may yet be made. Should it succeed administration leaders probably would be unable to get the pending measure before the senate again before noon and March 7.

Democratic Leaders Confident

In the heat of the vote, democratic leaders were confident their plan would hold although some republican might desert the majority in the filibuster effort to delay the continuous session ended.

After the strenuous all-night session Monday, the day in the senate was an exciting one, enlivened by parliamentary entanglements and denunciations of proceedings by insurgent democrats.
